MR. TAFT IN GEORGIA.

President elect William H. Taft was given a cordial reception in Atlanta yesterday. He is quoted as saying:

"I had not hoped to win the south, but the south has won me."

The banquet given in his honor last night was the event of the season. It was participated in by more than 500 of the city's representative men.

A feature of the banquet was 'possum and laters' served at special request of Mr. Taft. 'Simmon sauce and simmon beer' were among the accompaniments.

Mr. Taft, in his speech, among other things, said:

"I am a republican, but I concede the great advantage to the country in having a democratic party sufficiently powerful to put the republican party in fear of defeat. I have not come down here for political purposes and am not here to preach a political propaganda, nor if I were would I expect a political revolution. The south and the southern people are conservative and they do not change in a mercurial way. Never have I had a more cordial reception in any part of the country or the world than during my present visit to Georgia. The national administration may be properly held accountable and its policy determined by the qualifications, fitness, and standing of the men appointed to represent it in the districts and states of the section. I realize, therefore, that expressions of sympathy with the south and an earnest desire to bring it closer to the central government in thought and action and feeling will have comparatively little weight unless this expression is accompanied by such appointments in the south as shall prove this sympathy to be real and substantial. All I can say—with reference to the future policy of the administration in the south—on this subject is that I expect to spare no effort to find out the facts in respect to the character of proposed appointees and, so far as in me lies, to select those whose character and reputation and standing in the community commend them to their fellow citizens as persons qualified and able to discharge their duties well, and whose presence in important positions will remove, if any such thing exists, the sense of alienism in the government which they represent."

BOILED IN A TUB.

Lying in a bathtub in the Brown Palace Hotel in Denver, with boiling water still cooking his body, John O. Beatty, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., was found dead yesterday evening. He retired about 11 o'clock Thursday night, and was not seen alive afterward. Friends called at the hotel on business yesterday afternoon, and when they found he had not been seen during the day, broke into his room and made the horrible discovery. Mr. Beatty was sixty-five years old and fleshy. It is supposed that the altitude, a weak heart, and the hot water overcame him when he entered the bath tub. He was a large holder of land in several western states, and was the projector of the Imperial Valley enterprise in southern California, which resulted in the overflow of the Colorado river and cost Harman millions.

Fever Sores.

Fever sores and old chronic sores should not be healed entirely, but should be kept in healthy condition. This can be done by applying Chamberlain's Salve. This salve has no superior for this purpose. It is also most excellent for chapped hands, sore nipples, burns and diseases of the skin. For sale by W. F. Oregenton & Co., and Richard Gibson.

Do you use an atomizer in treating Nasal Catarrh?

If so you will appreciate Ely's Liquid Cream Balm, the quickest and surest remedy for this disease. In all curative properties it is identical with the solid Cream Balm, which is so famous and so successful in overcoming Catarrh, Hay Fever and cold in the head. There is relief in the first dash of spray upon the heated sensitive air passages. All 11 drugists 75c, including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 55 Warren St., New York.
